The Pastor Speaks

I greet you in the matchless, marvelous name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. It is because of His love and sacrifice that we are able to celebrate today—the Annual Observance the of Men's Day at Friendship.

Congratulations to Brother Reginald Greenwood, and the men who worked so diligently to bring forth a celebration of honor and respect. These are talented, selfless men of God, who exemplify the theme, "Men Worshiping In Spirit and Truth". They have shown that working together, with Christ as the head, they can accomplish much. Their friendship and fellowship shines as a light to others, showing that there is a reality in serving a true and living God. It is a labor of love that they present their best on this day. Everything is planned so that God gets the glory.

Thank you for worshiping with the Men of Friendship today. We know you will be inspired. We pray you will be enlightened and prompted to walk in obedience to God's word and His instruction. We want you to be a part of this great fellowship the entire day. We hope you will be so delighted that you will come visit with us again!

With the Love of Christ,

Pastor Reginald E. Bachus

The Chairman Speaks

It is with sincere appreciation that I greet you on our Men's Day Annual Observance. We have labored together to bring about a day of celebration and praise for God's love and mercy toward us. This has been a marvelous experience.

The men of Friendship worked cohesively to present the wonderful worship services we will experience. We pray that the camaraderie we achieved in working together to bring our best will continue throughout the days, weeks, and months to come.

Our best for this observance is displayed in the singing, the prayers, the preaching, and the fellowship we will experience today. The men have rehearsed long and well, and the singing will be glorious. The prayers will be heartfelt. Per usual, Pastor Bachus always brings the best of preachers, and we are honored to have no less today--Reverend Woody Collins, Reverend C. L. Bachus, and Reverend Steve Spiller, Sr. The fellowship will be satisfying and warm. We are in for a treat. Please plan to stay with us all day.

Thank you to all the men who worked to make this day honorable. Thank you, Pastor Bachus, for your support and guidance, and your confidence in our ability to present this special day. Thank you, members of Friendship, for your encouragement. Thank you, guests, for being a part of this wonderful Men's Day.

We praise God for all.

COVENANT – RESPONSIVE READING

Having been as we trust, brought by divine grace to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ, and to give ourselves wholly to Him, we do now solemnly and joyfully covenant with each other, to walk together in Him with brotherly love to His glory as our common Lord. We do therefore, in His strength engage...

That we will exercise a Christian care and watchfulness over each other, and faithfully warn, exhort and admonish each other as occasion may require.

That we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, but will uphold the public worship of God, and the ordinances of His house. That we will not omit closet and family religion at home, nor neglect the great duty of religiously training our children, and to those under our care, for the service of Christ, and the enjoyment of heaven.

That as we are the light of the world and the salt of the earth, we will seek divine aid to enable us to deny ungodliness, and every worldly lust, and to walk circumspectly in the world that we may win the souls of men.

That we will cheerfully contribute of our property according as God has prospered us, for the maintenance of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, for the support of the poor, and to spread the Gospel over the earth.

That we will in all conditions even till death, strive to live to the glory of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

“And may the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead, our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the Everlasting Covenant, make you perfect in every good work, to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ: To whom be Glory, forever and ever, Amen”.
